CoK, 2010

Amendment of Article 97 of the Constitution.

13. Article 97 of the Constitution is amended—

(a) in clause (1) by—

(i) deleting the words “two hundred and ninety” and substituting therefor the words “three hundred and sixty” in paragraph (a).

(ii) deleting paragraph (b) and substituting therefor the following new paragraph—

“(b) four members, being two women and two men, representing persons with disabilities;

(iii) deleting paragraph (c) and substituting therefor the following new paragraphs—

“(c) two members, being one woman and one man, representing the youth;

(ca) the number of special seats members necessary to ensure that no more than two-thirds of the membership of Parliament are of the same gender;”

(iv) inserting the following new paragraphs immediately after paragraphs (d)—

“(e) the Leader of Official Opposition;

(f) the Attorney-General, who is an ex officio member; and

(g) the Cabinet Ministers, who are not elected members of the National Assembly, who are ex officio members.”

Conclusion

1. Direct scaling does not give a true picture
2. Allowances = 50% of remuneration
